DSV establishes Solutions division in North America

With the acquisition of UTi, DSV gained substantial Solutions (Contract Logistics) activities in North America. As a result, we have now established a Solutions division in North America.

Previously, DSV only had a few contract logistics sites and activities in North America. These have now been merged with the former UTi sites/activities in North America. Together, they have been successfully rebranded “DSV” as of 1 October 2016; and a new DSV Solutions organization headed by President Michael Marlow has emerged.

Michael Marlow, President, DSV Solutions North America, comments

“We are extremely excited for the future of what a combined, stronger organization offers for our internal and external partners. The bringing together of two industry leaders will translate to a world of opportunity that will enhance service offerings, coverage, synergies and economies of scale globally. As each day passes, we are truly building a stronger team that will continue to deliver the best results for our clients and shareholders”.
