Strategic appointment of divisional CCOs

To further develop our commercial activities and customer relationships, we have appointed two new divisional Chief Commercial Officers (CCOs), in addition those already appointed for Solutions and Sub Saharan Africa.

All DSV divisions and Sub Saharan Africa now have a CCO. The divisional CCOs report directly to their divisional CEO – and are members of the DSV Global Commercial Organisation’s (GCO) senior management team lead by global CCO René Falch Olesen.

Jens Bjørn Andersen, CEO, comments

“We have appointed the new divisional CCOs to strengthen the ties between our global commercial organisation and the business. We want to continuously improve our performance in serving new and existing customers across DSV – and we hope this will be a significant step in that direction”.

Working with global commercial activities

The divisional CCOs will work across their respective global organisations. To ensure that cross-divisional activities are fully considered, all country sales directors will have a dotted line to a divisional CCO.

“We want to ensure structure and consistency in our approach to our global markets and customers. The divisional CCOs will have a central position to influence the commercial direction and cooperation between both our countries and divisions. We are convinced that this strategic move will have that exact effect,” says global CCO René Falch Olesen.

DSV – Global transport and logistics

In 1976, 10 independent hauliers joined forces and founded DSV in Denmark. Since then, DSV has evolved to become the world’s fourth largest supplier of global solutions within transport and logistics.

Today, we add value to our customers’ entire supply chain by transporting, storing, packaging, re-packaging, processing and clearing all types of goods. We work every day from our many offices in more than 80 countries to ensure a steady supply of goods to production lines, outlets, stores and consumers all over the world. Our reach is global yet our presence is local and close to our customers.
